

Euromovers International Give PSS International Removals the Top Booker Award for European Removals

July 15, 2021

London, England - July 15, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

During its recent annual conference, Euromovers International, a group composed of leading international moving companies and with headquarters in Germany, has given the 2020 Top Booker Award to PSS International Removals of Croydon, UK, for being the largest contributing partner for removals within Europe. Despite the UK leaving the EU, and the disruption caused by the coronavirus pandemic, there are still many people who want to move between the UK and Europe. These people are a mixture of expats and UK nationals moving to the Mediterranean (including Spain, Portugal, Greece, Italy, and the south of France) for lifestyle reasons, for instance, retirement, buying a holiday property, or starting a new life in the sun.

Thomas Jochum, General Manager at Euromovers International, says, "PSS International Removals plays an extremely important role in our Euromovers family. In 2020, PSS worked with 13 other members and contributed a tonnage of 1,773,112 lbs. That is absolutely terrific and an outstanding achievement. Their Top Booker award is truly deserved!"

He adds, "With both the coronavirus pandemic and Brexit, it has been a difficult period for international removals. However, despite this, Euromovers has never been stronger and the outlook for people moving between the UK and the European Union looks very positive going forward. PSS International Removals will continue to be a key member of our international service network for the foreseeable future."

Euromovers International is made up of over 70 experienced and reliable moving companies, located in Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Czech Republic, Germany, Greece, France, Italy, Luxembourg, Ireland, Spain, Switzerland, the Netherlands, and the United Kingdom, and beyond the European Union in the United States, the Russian Federation, China, Australia, and several other countries.

Liam Witham, CEO of PSS International Removals, responded to the award by saying, "We are delighted to receive such a prestigious award from Euromovers. This is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our team who have helped so many people move to and from Europe in what has been such a challenging period for everyone. It is also a reflection of the fact that, despite Brexit, the UK people will always have a love of the people and culture of our neighbours across the English Channel."

PSS International Removals is a provider of household removals, vehicle shipping, and box and baggage shipping. Among their various services, they offer a European removals service to assist people moving between the UK and continental Europe.

People who are moving can also get a good idea of the cost of moving to a particular country via the company's free online International Removal Cost Calculator, which considers the volume of household goods that are to be shipped. After entering the volume of household goods, the cost calculator presents the user with an estimate by taking into account the total cost of the overseas removal, including packing, customs clearance, door-to-door pickup and delivery, and shipping.

PSS International Removals has been in the business of shipping people's belongings overseas from the UK for more than 39 years. They have designed their overseas shipping service to ensure that their clients' transition to life abroad would be simple and hassle-free. Whether the client is shipping a few boxes or a whole household, including a car, they will always fully organise the shipment, including customs clearance and assistance with the necessary documents.

In addition to helping people move from the UK to Europe, PSS assist many European removals companies to move their clients move from all parts of Europe to the UK. PSS is experienced at handling post-Brexit customs clearance and the safe delivery of customers' goods to their address in the UK. Their experience of international moves means they are able to assist with road freight deliveries to mainland Europe and container shipping consignments to overseas destinations such as Cyprus, Malta and as far afield as Australia.
