A leading tree service company in Santa Ana, CA, Tree Service Experts Santa Ana is looking to save every tree they possibly can on all jobs for their clients. The company has made it a standard operational procedure for their certified arborists to conduct an inspection prior to removing any tree.

Company representative, Streeter Lucio, put it this way, ?We understand how important trees are to our environment and the world in which we live. They control our climate, they create oxygen for us to breathe, and they improve the quality of our air. Their value continues to increase as they satisfy increasing needs created by modern living. For this reason we try to save every tree we can on client jobs. Before we conduct any tree removal services, our arborists inspect the tree to determine whether removal is the best option. If an option that allows the client to keep the tree is available, the certified arborist will recommend it.?
