The firm's lead attorney, Alexander D. Napolin, states, "Our free consultations are aimed at victims who are so often left in the dark in the months following their accident. We are committed to giving them the best legal representation they can get, in turn giving them the best chance of winning their case under the guidance of their trusted car accident attorney in Orange."

Napolin explains that for anyone who was involved in a car, truck, or motorcycle accident and suffered injuries, their best course of action is always to contact an accident injury attorney and seek advice before talking to their insurance company. Evaluating the case, discussing possible outcomes and going over the overall details of the incident is important, and it helps get a feel for the course of action that is going to be taken moving forward. This is the first step that should be taken when looking to secure financial compensation following the accident.

He continues, "Seeking legal counsel and representation is something you want to do before talking to any insurance company. The insurance company of the person who hurt you is not on your side. Do not listen to the advice of the insurance adjuster. Their sole goal is to protect their insured and their company from paying your claim. We'll look out for your best interests and make sure you receive the compensation you are entitled to." Learn more here: Car Accident Attorney Orange California.

We understand that all cases and the circumstances surrounding them are different. We focus on evaluating our clients' cases, their circumstances and how we can manage their cases to give them the best chances to win.
