Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Columbus, a firm based in Columbus, GA, has a team of personal injury lawyers who specialize in auto accident and car crash claims, including truck wrecks. They want accident victims to know that it is normal to feel confused on what they should do because of the many issues that they need to face, such as medical bills, lost time from work, and the pain and suffering resulting from the injuries. The firm warns accident victims, however, that insurance adjusters may take advantage of the fact that the victims are stressed and confused and offer an amount to settle the case quickly. Accident victims should never accept such an offer from an insurance adjuster but instead talk with a personal injury attorney about the case.

Tim Derrickson, a representative for Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Columbus, says, ?Our law firm will not let you accept a lowball offer. We have a team of experienced attorneys and outside experts who will take a look at your case and value it for what it is worth. We will then tell the insurance company what you will accept to settle your claims. The insurance adjuster?s only goal is to make money for the insurance company. Your well-being is not their concern, and their settlement offers will usually be far less than the value of your claim. We are not intimidated by insurance companies, and we will not back down from a powerful opponent when you have been injured and your legal rights have been violated.?

It is important to remember that insurance companies have their own team of attorneys who will do their best to help them avoid paying large amounts to the injured party. This makes it necessary for the accident victims to have their own legal representation to make sure that their legal rights are protected. Such a personal injury attorney that they would want to ensure they have peace of mind is one who is not afraid to go against the big insurance companies and fight for what is due to the accident victim.

The personal injury attorneys at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. have the experience and the knowledge on what strategies to use and the most effective way to win their client?s case. For example, they commonly take care of accident cases for autos, trucks, and motorcycles. Auto accidents are relatively the easiest for them because it is quite easy to find the vehicle that is at fault. However, for motorcycle and truck accidents this can be more difficult. Motorcycle accidents can prove to be difficult because witnesses tend to describe the accident in a variety of ways and the respondent?s side may also have witnesses. Meanwhile, insurance companies for trucks are quite formidable because there are a lot of stakeholders involved. Nevertheless, the lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. are well experienced in handling such difficulties.

The personal injury attorneys at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Columbus can also handle other types of cases, aside from vehicle accidents. For instance, they can take care of slip and fall injuries and medical malpractice cases. These two kinds of cases need a comprehensive understanding of the case and the plaintiff?s point of view. This requires the experience and professionalism the firm?s lawyers have. Other practice areas for the lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. include workers compensation and workplace injuries, overtime and unpaid wages, wrongful death, dangerous products and premises, nursing home abuse, and insurance bad faith.

Wrongful death is when a loved one was killed as a result of an accident, medical malpractice, defective product, and more. The loved ones who have been left behind have the right to ask for compensation from the at-fault party, and the attorneys at the firm can provide such an assistance.
