Mr. Spitz further said, " Dumpster Dads is a family-run company that provides roll-off dumpsters for people and businesses. emergency service fee if needed. All dumpsters can handle up to 2 tons in weight without issue. The team at Dumpster Dads has been providing this service for several years. They charge renters an extra $10 per day beginning from the 8th day if a renter needs to use the rental container for longer than seven days. They also have a $75 additional overage charge for every ton of waste over the stipulated weight allowance, which is 2 tons. The extra charges remain the same as for the 15-yard dumpsters. However, the company can offer a 20-yard container for $365 for a 1 to 7 day rental period upon request.

They also charge lower overage fees for organic waste that weighs more than the given weight limit. They have a $30 overage charge for every additional ton of organic waste. Their extension charges remain at $10.
