

Personal Injury Attorney Helps Clients Seek Compensation In Atlanta

July 19, 2021

Atlanta, Georgia - July 19, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is pleased to announce that they are offering their assistance with personal injury cases to residents of Atlanta and the surrounding areas.

According to the firm, one of the unfortunate realities of life is that injuries can happen to anyone. When a person gets injured, their life is temporarily disrupted. However, even if the disruption is temporary, injuries leave long lasting and sometimes even permanent effects on the victim. They will have to deal with the seemingly unending stress of recovering from their injuries, dealing with lost income, settling unpaid bills and much more. This is exacerbated by the fact that attending to these post-accident problems usually slows down the healing process. With this in mind, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is offering to take on the legal side of personal injury cases so that their clients can focus exclusively on recovering.

Those who get injured deserve to receive medical care and compensation for their injuries. However, the insurance company and the responsible party may not be willing to give the full amount that the injured party deserves. This is especially the case with insurance companies that know of their obligations to injured parties but choose to take advantage of people who are unaware of these obligations. Fortunately, Kenneth

S. Nugent, P.C. is committed to helping injured parties receive the compensation that they are entitled to.

The accident attorneys at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. are capable of quickly assessing cases to determine how much compensation and care the injured party deserves to receive due to their injury. With them, people do not have to worry about falling victim to the greedy practices of insurance companies. The team is fully dedicated to protecting their clients' rights and fighting in court to make sure that their clients receive the compensation they are due under the law.

People sometimes forget that insurance companies also have legal representation ready to fight claims, given that accepting too many claims would impact their profits. The team at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is made up of highly skilled attorneys who are more than capable of taking on insurance companies and their representatives.

The members of their team include graduates from some of the best colleges and universities in the country, such as Emory, Mercer Law School, South Texas College of Law, Michigan State School of Law, Georgia State University School of Law and the University of Georgia, people from diverse racial and socio-economic backgrounds and recipients of the National Merit Scholarship, American Jurisprudence Award and Wolf Scholarship. The team at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is also unique in the sense that it is one of the largest teams in the Southeast that focuses only on helping injured parties and their families. The size of their team is an important factor in their operations as they have to deal with large insurance companies and corporations on behalf of their clients.

One such client, Jayla Ball, says in a 5-Star Google review, "Attorney Sterling was absolutely amazing! I was quite hesitant during the beginning of my case, but once Mr. Sterling was assigned to it, it went speedy after. He always called and followed up with me if there were any changes, simple check-ins, etc. This was my first car accident ever, and I was clueless as to how this whole process worked, but he definitely clarified everything for me to make sure I had a good understanding of what was going on. He's also very personable and professional! Excellent at what he does! I would recommend him to anyone I know who goes through any personal injuries. Thank you so much for all your hard work, Attorney Sterling! Keep being amazing at what you do."

Hope Garmon says in another 5-Star Google review, "Will and Becky were awesome to work with. Very professional and caring. They made it so easy. No stress. To have to go through what we did, we couldn't have asked for any better law office to handle our case. Recommended, definitely!"
