

Philadelphia Adoption Center Presents Forthcoming Educational Webinar

July 15, 2021

July 15, 2021 -

Philadelphia, PA - The Philadelphia Adoption Agency at AFTH is proud to present their next webinar, where they will be providing a safe space for adoptive families to discuss their thoughts and concerns on adopting transracially. To learn more about their local adoption agency, visit: <https://afth.org/office-locations/philadelphia-pa-adoption-agency/>

The adoption professionals from Adoptions From The Heart have shared the date and time of the webinar, hosted on July 19th, 2021, at 7 PM. The virtual support group will be recorded at their local Philly adoption center at 30 Hampstead Cir, Wynnewood, PA 19096, USA. To RSVP, please email Stephanie at Stephaniec@afth.org no later than July 18th. For any further questions, the adoption professionals can be reached at (610) 642-7200.

"The Transracial Adoption Support Group is a community that helps adoptive parents who have adopted transracially connect with one another. Our main priority is to provide a secure space to share your feelings, concerns, accomplishments, and challenges," explains the Director of AFTH, Heidi Gonzalez.

Ms. Heidi Gonzalez goes on to conclude, "We hope by answering questions about adopting transracially, it'll encourage more families to expand their options and look into not only transracial adoption but other services we offer."

The Philadelphia adoption center extends its adoptive services to the surrounding areas of Philly, including but not limited to Wyndmoor, Juniata, Chestnut Hill, Germantown, East Falls, Andorra, Olney Stenton, Wister, Laverock, and Kensington.
