Encinitas, California ? A top-rated tree service company operating in Encinitas city, Encinitas Tree Service Experts has managed to bring down a dead 200-foot tree. The company brought the tree down without harming any of the nearby utilities.

?The procedure was extremely risky,? said the company?s chief of field operations, ?The tree was surrounded by buildings in addition to the powerlines passing nearby. We had to cut it down foot by foot to eliminate the possibility of harming the surrounding utilities.?
