Citrus Heights, California ? Just a few months after setting up a new base of operations in the city of Citrus Heights, Citrus Heights Tree Service Experts is happy to report that its team has served the 1,000th customer.

The 1000th customer, Jenny Wyss, had the following to say about Citrus Heights Tree Service Experts, ?I honestly am so appreciative of the hard work these guys put in to get my really large project done in one day. They removed seven 100ft tall trees that were blocking the city views of my house and my neighbors on the street. They also did a bunch of work in my backyard at no additional cost. They worked late, worked hard, and really earned this review. Five stars across the board.?

?Our company has managed to make word mouth its main mode of advertisement,? said the company?s CEO, ?When we work with a client, we do our best to exceed his or her expectations. It is, therefore, not a surprise for us when most of the new clients we get tell us that a friend of theirs recommended Citrus Heights

Tree Service Experts to them. Our previous customers have made it possible for us to serve 1000 clients in just a couple of months. We will be forever grateful and will work harder to ensure our customers are getting maximum benefits from our services.?
