Roof Works Expands Emergency Roofing & Storm Damage Restoration Division

July 22, 2021

Roof Works, a Jackson Township, NJ based roofing company, is pleased to announce the expansion of their emergency roofing and storm damage restoration division after the recent wind and hail storms. By expanding this division, the company hopes to be able to provide quicker response times in order to mitigate the damage and leaks caused by bad weather. Roof Works has received a large number of inquiries after the recent wind storms and is attempting to help as many local homeowners as possible. Many have been affected by severe wind storms, and many homes are still damaged, suffering from leaks and in need of repairs or roof tarps. With the increased manpower, Roof Works is now equipped to help the community in case of future storms and other natural phenomena.

The company is considered by many to be the number one storm damage roofing repair provider in the area. With lifetime warranties, fully licensed technicians and with very low monthly payments, Roof Works stands out among the competition. The company offers a wide range of roofing repair services, including shingle storm damage repair, metal roofing storm damage, flat roofing storm damage, wind damage roofing repair and hail roofing repair (to name a few).

At Roof Works, they offer both commercial and residential roofing services. As the top roofing company in the Jackson Township area, Roof Works services both homeowners and businesses, going the extra mile to ensure that everyone in the area has a roof that is in the best possible condition. From industrial buildings to family homes, Roof Works has the experience and expertise necessary to perform roof installations and repairs whenever necessary. The recent expansion increases the company?s capabilities in every field ? but particularly in the realm of repairs.

The Jackson Township roofing company is locally owned-and-operated. The company prides itself in being one of the most experienced roofing providers in the area with over 40 years? experience. Their deep connection to the New Jersey community means that the Roof Works team is committed to achieving 100% customer satisfaction and ensuring that every customer is well taken care of. Roof Works is as much a part of Jackson Township as their customers, and thus customers are viewed as an integral part of the Roof Works family. When choosing Roof Works, customers are making the decision to work with a neighbor who is committed to ensuring that whatever work needs to be done meets the very highest standards.

A large number of pleased customers have left excellent reviews on several online platforms. Edilly Peleo says in their 5-Star Google review, ?When I first talked to Sean on the telephone, I was very impressed by the way he answered all my queries regarding my house's roof repairs and budget concerns. My experience with him was incredible. He is very knowledgeable in his work, and kind and professional. So, if you are looking for a roofing repair or replacement, I highly recommend him. The quality of work, price and professionalism, I can say is the best. I had five estimates from different roofing companies before I found him. My roof is now done, and the work is very impressive. So, again I recommend his company 110%. You will not regret doing business with him."

Another customer, Joshua McDonald, says in their own review, ?I am compelled to write this review. I have never met a more compassionate, caring, professional or honest roofing contractor. Sean is quite a remarkable contractor ? he went well above and beyond to repair all of the damages to our home. We had massive leaks coming in after a bad rain storm. Roof Works took our leaks very seriously. I would recommend them to everyone. By the end of the repairs being made, I feel like this stranger is now a dear friend. As a homeowner for 20+ years, this is a rarity, and I had to share my experience. If you've ever dealt with a contractor, it can be pulling teeth to even get as much as a response. Not with Roof Works.?
