July 23, 2021 -
Destination Paradise, a Youtube channel that posts inspirational and scenic landscape videos every week, has posted the England 4K Relaxation Film. The video comprises drone shots of many of England?s beautiful natural scenery and manmade attractions set to relaxing music.

The video published by Destination Paradise takes its time to present in its fullest glory some of the places that tourists flock to. The Youtube channel mixes immaculately shot drone footage with calming relaxing music to create an audiovisual treat worth experiencing for everyone who has been to or is planning to visit the nation. The video uses many videography styles such as aerial shots, panoramic shots, close-up shots, drone shots, flyover shots, hyper-lapse shots, and tracking shots.

The video captures locations such as The Mall, the River Thames, the Big Ben Parliament Building, the Tower Bridge, Hyde Park, the famous Durdle Door rock formation on the Jurassic Coast in Dorset, Westminster Bridge, the Shard, Waterloo, Greenwich Park, Canary Wharf, University of Cambridge, Piccadilly Circus, the countryside in Malvern, the White Cliffs of Dover, Drakes Island, and the William Tyndall Monument in Gloucester to name a few. The video also captures multiple interesting shots such as crowds making their way through the streets of London, beautiful sunrises, sunny days, sunsets, England?s many idyllic villages, the gorgeous London skyline, green pastures, the harbor, scenic green meadows in the countryside, farmland, rolling hills, ships moving across the Thames, and many more eye-catching attractions.

England is the biggest of the nations that comprise the United Kingdom. The country is dotted with beautiful vistas and impressive architecture. Geographically, England lies to the south of Scotland and east of Wales. To the west of England, across the Irish sea, lies Northern Ireland, which is a part of the UK, and the Republic of Ireland. Across the English Channel to the south lies France and the Channel Islands.

The country?s most visited cities include London, Oxford, Cambridge, York, Canterbury, Manchester, Birmingham, and Liverpool. It is home to 17 of the 25 UNESCO World Heritage Sites that fall within the United Kingdom. It regularly features on the list of the best countries to visit for tourists from many prestigious tourism publications such as Lonely Planet.

England's terrain is primarily comprised of low hills and plains, especially in central and southern England. The northern and western part of the country is comprised of upland and mountainous terrain. The country has a temperate maritime climate with the temperature not falling much lower than 0 degrees Celsius in winter and not getting higher than 32 degrees Celsius in the summer. The best time to visit is during the months of mild to warm weather such as May, June, September, and October.

Those planning to visit England can look forward to visiting world-class museums and galleries such as the British Museum, Tate Modern, the National Gallery, the Natural History Museum, London, Victoria & Albert Museum, the Science Museum, London, Royal Museums Greenwich, Tate Britain, the Ashmolean Museum, and the National Railway Museum. Tourists can also plan to visit World Heritage sites such as the Tower of London, St. Paul?s Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, Roman Baths, Canterbury Cathedral, Stonehenge, Palace of Westminster, York Minster, Chatsworth House, Leeds Castle, Hampton Court Palace, Blenheim Palace, Portsmouth Historic Dockyard, Stourhead, and the Beaulieu Palace House and Abbey. Those who are inkling for a tryst with nature can visit the country?s many national parks such as Lake District National Park, New Forest National Park, North York Moors National Park, Peak District National Park, and South Downs National Park.

The video published by Destination Paradise is over 50 minutes long. It has been viewed by over 61,000 viewers within a short time period of a few months. There are plenty of supportive comments on the Youtube video from viewers who appreciated and enjoyed the experience. The channel has posted many similar scenic relaxation videos capturing other locations around the world on its Youtube channel.
