Valdosta Personal Injury Attorney Reaffirms Commitment To Community

July 22, 2021

GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Valdosta is reaching out to reassure their community that their team will always be available to provide assistance with personal injury cases. In the event of an accident or similar event, the firm states, time is often of the essence for a multitude of reasons. As such, the firm asserts that their team is always standing by to offer legal aid and guidance whenever a client approaches them for help.

Led by Ken Nugent, the firm comprises one of the largest legal teams in Southeast, and they are notable for the fact that they exclusively assist victims and their families. According to the firm, this ensures that their priorities are always with the victim, and there is virtually no room for a conflict of interest on their part. In turn, this allows them to dedicate themselves wholesale to their clients? goals. Similarly, clients can always rest assured that the firm has every reason to put in their best efforts at every step of their case.

This is part of the reason the firm urges clients not to hesitate if they believe they may be due compensation for an injury they have suffered. In many instances, fast action can mean the difference between a case reaching a timely conclusion and a settlement that takes far too long to arrive. Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. points out that injured parties tend to need immediate medical attention ? attention that can prove to be exceedingly costly even in the best of circumstances. In other situations, medical bills can actually bury entire families in debt. Here, the only way out for most people would be a sizable settlement, but cases are also known to take time to proceed. Should the victim need long-term care, a lack of prompt action could mean that funds for this care could run out before compensation is won.

?If you are injured due to another party?s negligence,? the firm says, ?we ask you to come speak to our attorneys at once. The least you could do is find out what options are at your disposal, and that is exactly what we?ll help you do. The longer you wait, the fewer options may present themselves to you when you do decide to pursue compensation. However, the right attorney can identify every method by which the situation can be turned in your favor, and you can find such attorneys at our firm.?

Another key aspect of the firm?s service is their ability to visit a client who may otherwise be unable to reach them (for whatever reason). All an accident victim needs to do is contact the firm?s representatives and describe their situation as well as provide their location. The firm will dispatch an expert team who can be by the client?s side in as few as 24 - 48 hours. Crucially, victims need not hesitate to call the firm if they have financial concerns ? Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. considers it their duty to provide a free case review to begin with, giving all their prospective clients the insight they need to make informed decisions before they even take their first step towards legal action.

Pam Balcom recommends the firm for this and many other reasons in her Facebook review, explaining that she, ?received personal attention on my case. I was kept updated at all times. My team provided great legal advice and led me along the way to a great settlement. I would recommend Ken Nugent to anyone looking for legal help! I cannot say enough good things about their service!?

Stacy Jones also says, ?My experience with this law office was awesome. They were very caring, professional and compassionate towards my husband's needs. I am very pleased with how his case was handled. I would recommend Ken Nugent and his amazing staff at the Augusta office anytime.?
