July 22, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Savannah, Georgia based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Savannah is reaching out to the wider community to share information about the range of legal services they provide. The law firm has been trusted by thousands of clients involved in car accidents, motorcycle wrecks, 18-wheeler accidents and more all across Savannah and the surrounding communities.

Ted Derrickson, a representative for the company, says, "Any unexpected injury or accident will have a large impact on your life, especially if the incident was caused by no fault of your own. In such a case, not only will you need to deal with pain and trauma, but also additional problems like loss of wages, money spent on medical treatments and so on. In most cases, you'll receive a settlement offer from the insurer of the at-fault party, and many people make the mistake of quickly accepting the offer. Don't. Always consult with an expert personal injury lawyer before you make any decision to make sure that the settlement that you receive is appropriate for the troubles you are facing."

The law firm explains that most people fail to realize that insurance companies are not on their side. The adjuster will always be hoping to settle the injured party's claims quickly and on their terms, thus saving the insurance company a lot of money. If someone accepts an early settlement, they may be undervaluing the claim. Of course, once the injured party accepts an offer and signs a release, they no longer have any ability to bring suit against the negligent party responsible for their accident. This is why it is important to hire a personal injury lawyer.

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Savannah promises that their lawyers will look at all angles of the case, including the nature of injuries that a client has suffered, the cost of their past and future medical treatment and the impact that the accident has had on their life. With the vast experience of their legal team and the assistance of experts, the law firm will properly value the claim and enter into settlement negotiations, with the upper hand, against the insurance company.

As explained by the law firm, Georgia injury laws allow an injured victim to bring a claim in a variety of circumstances. Each type of claim is different and must be handled by a skilled and experienced attorney who is well-versed in the law. The injury accident lawyers at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Savannah boast over 350 years of combined experience for their clients' benefit. The types of cases that they handle include automobile and bike accidents, slip and fall accidents, workplace accidents, defective products, medical malpractice, nursing home abuse, dog bites and more.

The services provided by the law firm have earned them a lot of praise from their clients. The Google profile for the law firm shows a 4.8 out of 5 Star rating from nearly 200 reviews. Monica Hodges says in her review, "I was in a bad situation that caused me a lot of pain and suffering. I had never reached out to an attorney before, but Angela made my case smooth and effortless. She handled all my issues with ease and professionalism. I highly recommend this business and Angela Gore. I can't thank her enough for all she did for me."

Meanwhile in another review, Alivia Brian writes, "The team worked with me and made sure I had as little stress as possible. They took care of everything and were very prompt and thorough, so I never was left with any questions or confused! So thankful for this awesome group!"

Derrickson says, "If you have suffered an injury due to the negligence of another party, our injury attorneys stand ready to fight for you. We will ensure that you receive both justice and the compensation that you deserve."
