Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C, an Augusta, GA based personal injury law firm, would like to reach out to local residents who may be in need of legal representation. The firm helps clients get the compensation they need and deserve following an injury, which can help them cover their medical and legal expenses in addition to making up for the major inconvenience caused by having to stay in hospital or at home for an extended period. Accidents are expensive for everyone involved and with the right representation, it is possible to ensure that the victim gets enough compensation to cover every expense.

?An injury sustained in an accident is a devastating experience,? the firm says. ?When you have been injured at the hands of a negligent party, you may need costly medical treatment to help you get back on your feet. Even if some of your bills are covered by insurance, you could still find yourself with thousands of dollars of out of pocket costs. Large medical bills may be pushing you to settle your injury claim with the insurance company right away. Doing so may cause you to accept a settlement that is worth much less than the true value of your case.?

A personal injury settlement must take a number of factors into account, such as current and future cost of medical treatment, permanent or long term injuries that the victim might suffer as a result of said injury (along with general pain and suffering). Insurance adjusters are incredibly skilled at and dedicated to ensuring that the victim of an accident accepts a quick, often small and insufficient, settlement. This often means the insurer pays as little possible, the injured party is undercompensated and, assuming they sign a release, there is now way to pursue any further claims against the at-fault party. Kenneth S. Nugent has seen many make the mistake of working with insurance adjusters and signing releases despite not receiving adequate compensation.

At Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. the team works to ensure that insurance companies do not bully their clients into inadequate settlements. With over 350 years of combined experience ? along with all the skills and knowledge needed to evaluate and then fight for the rights of a client ? the firm is more than equipped to handle any and all cases involving personal injury. Where it is necessary, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. hires experts to assist with the calculation of value in order to ensure the claim they bring before the court is watertight. With the firm?s highly experienced and committed legal team on a client?s side, the case is all but guaranteed to have a positive outcome.

Several former clients have left excellent reviews of the firm on the Google platform and other similar platforms. Sylvia Wunderly says in her 5-Star review, ?Working with Ms. Jennifer Palmer over the past year has been an absolute pleasure. My case took a while, due to the insurance company, yet Ms. Palmer stayed in constant touch with me. Ms. Palmer was very professional and patient with me and my many phone calls. If I am ever in need of an attorney again, I would definitely reach out to Ms. Palmer.?

Johnny Houston also says, ?The whole legal team, from Jenna Matson, Ms. Barton, Mr. Trimm, finance specialist, down to the secretary was just amazing. Because they didn't just treat me as a client, they treated me as if I was family. They walked me through the whole process, answered any questions I had and kept me informed. I want to thank everyone for a job well done in helping me with my situation. I wish you all the best, and may God Bless you all.?
