

Personal Injury Attorney Stands With Atlanta Victims

July 23, 2021

Atlanta, Georgia - July 23, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The law firm of Atlanta, GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is reaching out to reassure their community that their team is ready to offer their professional legal assistance and guidance in the event they are injured in an accident. Should the victim be injured as a result of another party's negligence or improper conduct, they are entitled to receive compensation for their suffering, both physical and financial. The team at Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. makes it their mission to pursue this compensation on each client's behalf.

They clarify that they are ready and able to visit clients if they are unable to visit the law offices of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. in person. Their commitment to their community is such that they can be at a new client's side within 24 - 48 hours of being contacted. Notably, the firm offers a free initial consultation that allows clients to find their footing and learn what legal options are at their disposal. Once they make an informed decision, the team will get to work, aggressively pursuing a satisfactory settlement on their behalf. All it takes to get this process started is one phone call, email or even online chat message. Accident victims may find the firm's representatives in Albany, Duluth, Atlanta, Macon, Augusta, Savannah, Columbus and Valdosta.

Furthermore, they insist that calling an Atlanta personal injury attorney is among the first steps an individual should take following an accident. The first step, no matter the circumstances, is to get examined by a medical professional to determine the extent of the injury (or injuries) in question to ensure that the victim is at no life-threatening risk. Once their well being is assured, Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C must be called ? well before the victim speaks to anyone else, even the other party or their insurance company. This is due to the fact that anything the victim says might be used to reduce the compensation they are offered. As such, the only person they should speak to about the accident is their lawyer.

While the firm has seven other locations across Georgia, a client need only look at the reviews posted for a single one to get an idea of the quality of service offered at each branch. This is due to the fact that they were all founded, and continue to operate today, on the same basic principles that Ken Nugent originally started his practice on.

For instance, the firm's Atlanta office has garnered more than 1,000 reviews on the Google platform alone, holding a respectable average of 4.4 out of 5 Stars. A quick assessment of these reviews indicates that most give the firm a top rating for their work.

Jayla Ball's 5-Star review explains their experience with the firm in some details, going on to explain that, ?I was quite hesitant during the beginning of my case, but once Mr. Sterling was assigned to it, it went speedy after. He always called and followed up with me if there were any changes, simple check-ins, etc.?

The review adds, ?This was my first car accident ever, and I was clueless as to how this whole process worked, but he definitely clarified everything for me to make sure I had a good understanding of what was going on. He's also very personable and professional! Excellent at what he does! I would recommend him to anyone I know who goes through any personal injuries. Thank you so much for all your hard work, Attorney Sterling! Keep being amazing at what you do.?

Another review, by Louise Nolley, appears to share this perspective. An excerpt from their review says, ?The Ken Nugent Firm has been magnificent for my daughter and I. The attorneys made sure we were well taken care of during this pandemic in 2020. We are so proud that they represented us through these hard times, and we just want to say thank you. If you are in the Atlanta area and you get in a terrible accident, call Ken Nugent first, they will come to your rescue.?
