Those who live in Glendora and surrounding areas who were hurt or injured because of an accident, whether it is a car crash, truck accident or motorcycle collision, are encouraged to call the firm, which is headed by Alexander D. Napolin. They want to emphasize that they are offering a free, no-obligation consultation to properly assess an individual's specific case.

Alexander D. Napolin himself says, "Choosing an accident injury law firm with a reputation of success is important. I have a track record of success. However, many firms boast that their years in practice and past trial wins make them your best attorney choice. Nothing could be further from the truth. A law firm's length of existence and success on past cases will not determine the success of your case. In fact, many other factors will determine whether your case is successful or not. Case success means that a case is evaluated correctly, and then timely prosecuted in a way that improves the client's overall well-being."

They want to advise accident victims not to consent to any settlement being offered by an insurance adjuster because the amount that will be offered will likely be much less than the appropriate settlement amount that can be obtained legally through the assistance of a reliable lawyer. It is important to note that Attorney Napolin, as a personal injury attorney Glendora residents can go to, has many years of experience and has a string of successes, where the accident victims were able to receive the proper compensation for their injuries and suffering caused by the accident.

They want people to be aware that when the accident that occurred and caused the injury was due to the actions of a negligent third party, the victim can legally ask for damages under California state law. The person at fault for the injuries has to cover the hospital and medical costs, lost wages, and other damages and possibly even more, based on California personal injury laws.

Alexander D. Napolin is a 100 percent plaintiff-side personal injury lawyer. This implies that he will never help defend any companies or insurance carriers but will focus on helping personal injury victims. He is a graduate of California State University in Fullerton and he obtained his law degree from Pepperdine University.

He has more than sufficient experience in helping the accident victim get the highest possible amount of settlement. Their dedicated legal team can also assist clients in various additional ways. They can offer help to clients with regards to their healing and recovery from their injuries and more, through medical treatment, legal counseling, timely case prosecution, and financial protection.

Furthermore, they has a no fee promise, which means that clients are not charged any legal fees or expenses unless their case has finally been pursued successfully.
