

Aspiring California Musicians Can Now Join the Online Course Offered by AIMM Music School

July 29, 2021

Duluth, Georgia - July 29, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Atlanta Institute of Music and Media (AIMM), one of the country's premier music and media production schools, is offering an Online Certificate in Music and Technology. The course is an excellent opportunity for California musicians, producers, engineers, guitarists, and bassists to elevate their skills, network within the industry, and land a successful music career.

The Atlanta Institute of Music and Media provides non-beginning instrument students and recording arts students a platform and coaching environment that enhances their latent musical talents and prepares them for the challenges they would face as working professionals in the industry. The school's primary focus is to give its students, a positive and fulfilling experience that will hone their skills to match the demands of the recording and media industry. AIMM believes with the way the music industry currently is, having an instrument and technical-based education gives AIMM students in California a clear advantage over other DIY musicians and producers.

The school's curriculum incorporates both class and private instructions in the form of audio, video, and computer lab sessions. They also host live clinics that bring in speakers who have made their mark in the industry and are willing to share their resplendent knowledge of the craft. These initiatives give the students a unique insider's perspective on the opaque workings of an often secretive industry.

The institute's alumni include a who's who of the current media and music production landscape. A few of the names highlighted on AIMM's website include Tosin Abasi (Animals as Leaders), Kesha Lee (Childish Gambino, Gucci Mane), KEYZBABY (Beyonce, Cardi B, Wiz Khalifa), Turbo the Great (Gunna, Young Thug), Devon (Stixx) Taylor (Justin Bieber), J Bake (Mariah Carey), Stephen Freeman (Method Man, Mary J Blige), Terrell Sass (Ludacris, T.I.), Matt Aston (Real Housewives of Atlanta), Jacob Evergreen (Rachel Platten), Vitali Tkachenka (Modern Scales Concepts, AIMM), Benjie Freund (Neutrino Gaming), Aaron Soriero (Pitbull), Cameron Allen (Morgan's Road, AIMM), Andrew Tanguay (Mercedes-Benz Stadium), Chris Kittredge (Arrested Development), and Guerilla Warfar (Nu Metal Band), just to name a few.

AIMM's online music certificate uniquely combines organic instrumentation with valuable music production techniques. The certificate offers a concentration in either guitar or bass. It consists of 36 credits that are fully transferable to the Associate of Applied Science in Music and Technology Degree offered by the same school. The school also offers financial aid for those who qualify. The program is 100% online and can be completed in 12 months of full-time enrollment.

The course ensures that the students get to sample and learn from a wide range of musical styles such as jazz, rock, classical, folk, blues, and R&B. The school also helps students with job placements upon graduation, beginning from the final quarter of attendance. They have a dedicated Career Placement Specialist that helps students produce an eye-catching and impressive resume that will open doors for them to advance their career.

The school is an AVID Pro Tools Training Partner. This hard to attain distinction grants the school the ability to provide insider tips and insights when it comes to recording, mixing, and mastering original music. The school trains its students on industry-standard software such as Pro Tool 101 and Pro Tool 110. This insistence on training with state-of-the-art software makes its students ready to take on professional workloads from the get-go.

A spokesperson for the school talks about the online course by saying, "Online learning has opened up avenues that were hitherto undreamt of. Now you can be halfway across the country and still level up your skills under the guidance of expert coaches and instructors without upending your entire life. You can now earn a world-class education without sacrificing your time and existing gigs, a luxury that most musicians struggling to make it in the industry would appreciate. So give us a call today at (770) 242-7717 or send us an email at admissions@aimm.edu or head over to our website to confirm your enrollment in the best California music school online."
