July 26, 2021 -
Huntington Beach, CA ? A 5-star tree service marketing agency, Home Service Direct has just released a New SEO video showing tree service providers how to push their websites to the top position on search engine result pages. Majorly, the video focuses on how tree service providers can use relevant and strategically researched keywords across their websites to rank higher.

Speaking after releasing the video, the agency?s spokesperson noted, ?With almost every property owner using the internet to get his/her next tree service provider, leveraging Search Engine Optimization (SEO) is extremely important. We created this video to help our clients get their foot in the SEO space. The video introduces tree service providers to the things they need to take care of to increase their organic traffic, get more leads, and make more money.?

Home Service Direct boasts more than 6 years of digital marketing experience and also happens to be home to some of the most passionate digital marketers in the US. The marketing agency helps tree care providers take advantage of all tree-related searches happening in their locality. Ensuring that tree service websites rank high on Google?s Pack, the agency directs high-quality leads to the tree service providers? websites, resulting in high conversion rates.

?At the beginning, SEO may require a lot of effort,? said the agency?s spokesperson, ?There are KPIs ? Key Performances Indicators ? that need to be tracked to assess whether the campaign is succeeding. While our video does introduce tree service providers to all these basics, the work involved may be overwhelming for some ? especially for the first 4 to 6 months. Not to worry though, our team of experts can handle everything for you.?

Home Service Direct does not just focus on SEO to generate leads for tree service providers. The marketing agency is also skilled in Pay Per Click Advertising, Retargeting Ads, and Call Tracking & Recording.

?When it comes to Ads, you have to spend money on those,? said the agency?s spokesperson, ?Our goal is to ensure that the money you spend on the Ads does not go to waste. This is why our team of professionals will spend hours and hours crafting high-converting tree service websites that not only build credibility and trust but also compel visitors to take action. Our Pay Per Click advertisement is designed to give you value for every click you pay for.?
