Cohen Battisti & Grossman Law Firm Launches Updated Website

October 01, 2015

October 01, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

ORLANDO, Fla. ? Cohen Battisti & Grossman, Attorneys at Law announced today that it is has launched an updated version of its website, www.cohenbattisti.com. The new site offers expanded content on the firm?s practice areas while underscoring Cohen Battisti & Grossman?s basic credo, ?It?s about justice.? The firm specializes in personal injury law, criminal defense, insurance claims, employment and family law.

?When we say ?It?s about justice,? we are really talking about getting justice for you, whatever your legal situation might be,? said Michael L. Grossman, Esq., Supervising Attorney at Cohen Battisti & Grossman. ?Though we cover a lot of ground, legally, we only represent people, not big corporations. Every case is personal. We take that responsibility very seriously. Our mission is to make that your case is argued in an aggressive but dignified way.?

In addition to personal injury, Cohen Battisti & Grossman is known for highly effective management of cases involving the legal rights of servers and bartenders, compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), bicycle accidents and renter?s rights. Each area of focus in the firm is backed by attorneys with extensive experience and winning track records.

The firm's updated website has several new features, including a blog that describes legal issues in depth, a live chat box to answer the "do I have a case?" question in real time and a page dedicated to the firm's renowned "Insider Secrets Workshops." The workshops cover conflicts with insurance companies over payment for restoration work.

Cohen Battisti & Grossman has more than 50 employees. Each of the firm's primary partners brings deep experience in complex matters of law. Mr. Cohen served as a state prosecutor who handled more than 40 trials. Steven Battisti, Esq., worked as a claims adjuster for a Large Insurance Company. Michael L. Grossman, Esq. Supervising Attorney at Cohen Battisti & Grossman, is responsible for managing the firm's insurance claim division as well as overseeing general litigation.
