Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. has long credited his reputable Georgia Law Firm?s success to the keen legal minds that he has in place throughout the firm?s various offices around the state. He gave as an example the Albany branch of the firm and its lead attorney Matthew Kirtlink. The legal team that attorney Kirtlink leads there has established a high rate of success when it comes to litigating personal injury claims. A trend that continues at all 8 Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. law office locations throughout Georgia.

This personal injury attorney Albany GA has built up his expertise in this area of law with a solid legal education which is complemented by many years in practice. He obtained his undergraduate degree from Drake University in 1996 and then attended the Mercer University School where he received his Juris Doctor degree in 2000. With his solid educational foundation, he was able to pass the required bar exams to practice law in both Georgia and Florida. This was something that is deemed essential when it comes to leading a legal team in a Southeastern Georgia city that borders on the state of Florida. Since his graduation, Attorney Kirtlink has spent the entire time practicing law in the Albany area and he has made a specialty of litigating cases for people who have been injured as a result of automobile collisions, tractor-trailer crashes, work-related accidents, and medical malpractice. Adding to this lawyer?s well-rounded legal knowledge base are his many years spent as the secretary/treasurer of the Dougherty County Bar Association and he also spent time as an adjunct professor at Valdosta State University where he taught law courses that were centered around civil procedure, business law, family law, and real estate transactions.

As with all of the Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. law offices in Georgia, the Albany office focuses mostly on legal matters regarding personal injury law. Attorney Kirtlink and the others on his Albany-based legal team realize that when someone is a victim in a personal injury incident it can be an overwhelming experience. That?s why they will be there to guide their clients through every step of the personal injury claims process. This way the firm?s clients can stop worrying about how they are going to pay their medical bills and what their future holds and just focus on their recovery. This is fully keeping with this law firm?s philosophy of ?One call,

That?s all?. Attorney Kirtlink and his legal support staff always work hard to get their clients the justice they are seeking, appropriate compensation, and it gives them the peace of mind that comes from knowing they and their families' future is being protected. The most common cases that the Albany location of the Kenneth S. Nugent Law offices handles are moving vehicle accidents.
