New Jersey -- The Matus Law Group has represented clients in New Jersey for over 20 years. They specialize in estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Christine Matus and her team have been deeply involved in the lives of their clients and communities for many years. They offer a unique and compassionate approach when it comes to legacy planning and estate planning.

"We are fortunate to have a dedicated group at Matus Law Group. It's not just a profession, it's a passion. "Our life's work, we help families secure their futures and their loved ones. We are passionate about what our team does every day," stated the special needs trust attorney. We believe that we go beyond what most people expect from their lawyers and have created something truly unique at Matus Law Group.

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has an individual connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mom of a daughter with Down syndrome and has dedicated a big portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular estate planning and financial needs. Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about brand-new resources and provides education and information in the unique needs arena. As a talented special needs trust attorney, she offers important information about financial and estate preparation for special needs households so that they can feel assured about their loved one's future.

Matus Law Firm works with local professionals to offer information and webinars online to educate the public about finances, estate planning, and what the future holds. With an Avvo Rating rating of 10.0, the company has been on the Law Firm 500 for the past three years. They continue to receive praises, positive testimonials, and reviews from their clients regarding their services.

Tony E., a local guide from New Jersey, gave the firm 5 stars and stated ?Very friendly?.

Matus Law Group is dedicated to making a positive difference in the lives of the people we serve and the communities they live in. Our clients are treated like family members. We believe in a team approach. Ms. Matus said that each member of the firm is able to draw on their own knowledge and provide the compassionate and customized care that our customers need. "We value our clients as much as we value them, and it shows in the representation we provide and the ongoing relationships we can build with the families.

Individuals and families seek out those who are compassionate and have the legal knowledge and ability to help them with matters such as estate planning and planning for their future. Christine Matus and the Matus Law Group's skilled team of estate planning attorneys are proud of their ability to make an impact on the lives of their clients.
