July 27, 2021 -

MoldStar Remediation, owned and operated by Jeremy Shelton, has recently announced that they will broaden their service area right into Roswell, GA. Since 2009, Mr. Shelton has offered Atlanta and the surrounding locations with mold and mildew evaluation and air quality testing services. Jeremy brings more than a decade of mold and mildew experience to Roswell-based homeowners handling toxic mold.

As a professional in mold elimination and cleanup, MoldStar and Mr. Shelton stick out from other firms in several ways. In addition to his extensive experience, Shelton also holds accreditations in Water Damage Restoration and Applied Microbial Remediation with IICRC, the interior air-quality industry's most valued certification body. Mr. Shelton brings knowledge and experience that just a couple of mold specialists in Georgia can match.

These qualifications and years of sensible experience are essential as the state of Georgia requires no official training or licensing for mold remediators. Shelton's know-how and certifications aid him, and the MoldStar attacks mold issues in several methods, helping Roswell property owners save time and money. House owners curious about employing MoldStar ought to first obtain a remediation protocol from a licensed microbial expert. MoldStar can assist homeowners in building one of the most affordable yet comprehensive options for resolving their mold trouble when the remediation protocol has been obtained. Because MoldStar uses the most current methods, chemicals, and practices, MoldStar customers typically see savings between 25-50% while receiving a far better, more comprehensive solution.

With more than ten years of experience and MoldStar's commitment to continuing education and learning, and customer care, it has led them to rapidly turn into one of the highest-rated mold and mildew elimination firms in Atlanta. If you are experiencing wellness problems from poisonous mold and mildew exposure or dealing with a mold and mildew infestation, connect to Jeremy Shelton and the MoldStar Removal group. Unlike lots of other specialists, MoldStar Remediation prides themselves on their client service as well as fast feedback. You can trust MoldStar to answer the phone. MoldStar proudly services all of Atlanta and bordering cities such as Sandy Springs, Marietta, Kennesaw, Alpharetta, Roswell, Johns Creek, and more.
