New York - The New York Civil Rights laws were created to ensure everyone's basic rights. People who feel their civil liberties have been violated by the justice process often seek the assistance of a New York civil rights lawyer.

Civil rights in the United States are under constant attack, especially in today's world. They continue to be at the forefront of social discontent and daily headlines. David S. Leigh Esq. is the best person to understand the plight of civil liberties violators. His clients can rely on him as a New York civil rights lawyer to hold those who violate their civil rights accountable.

"We like to think that the USA represents freedom and security for all. However, we know this is not always the case. Every day we are able to see how our systems have failed certain people. We still see that the law guarantees equal rights for everyone, but we also see violations of those laws by individuals and entities who are supposed to uphold these fundamental civil rights," Mr. Leigh stated. Our firm believes that everyone deserves justice. However, many of our clients have experienced firsthand that justice is not always equal in our system. This is why we are asked to use the power of law to level the playing field.

His unwavering advocacy for victims of police brutality, excessive force, and sexual assault has earned him numerous praises and admiration from his clients.

Greg Green from New York states: "I worked with David while at the District Attorney's office. David is very knowledgeable in the law. David has outstanding attention to detail and the critical ability to see the big picture, then find and question the inconsistencies in the reports. This is a fundamental skill that makes a good criminal defense lawyer great. I highly recommend David."

These simple facts are what we see on the streets and in our local communities. Civil liberties injury claims are among the most common claims in NYC. In fact, federal civil rights claims have increased exponentially in the last few years. Unfortunately, Mr. Leigh knows that many civil liberties have been violated by those charged with protecting them.

The justice system can seem daunting, but many people face it every day believing that it is rigged. Unfortunately, this mentality has led to abuses in many areas of government and law enforcement. Mr. Leigh and his law firm have dedicated their careers to civil rights for others to ensure that they are heard and that those who violate their rights are held accountable.

The Law Office of David S. Leigh P.C., is an experienced New York civil rights law firm. Mr. Leigh and the Law Office of David S. Leigh are vigilant protectors of civil rights violators. His career has been dedicated to making sure that everyone's voice is heard, especially those whose civil rights have been violated by the justice system.
