New Jersey -- The Matus Law Group has represented New Jersey families for over 20 years in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder planning, asset protection, and real estate law. Christine Matus and her team have been taking a keen interest in the communities they serve for many years. They offer a thoughtful and unique approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We are fortunate to have a dedicated team at Matus Law Group. It's not just a job, it's a passion. "Our life's work, we believe, is to help families secure their future and their loved ones. We are passionate about what we do every day." stated the estate planning attorney. We believe that we go beyond what most people expect from their legal professionals and have created something very special at Matus Law Group.

Ms. Matus is the founding attorney and has a personal connection to the special needs community. Ms. Matus, a mother to a Down syndrome child, has dedicated a significant portion of her practice towards special needs families and their specific estate planning and financial needs. Ms. Matus provides information and education in the special needs area that families may be able to use and helps them learn about new resources. She is a skilled estate planning attorney and can provide important information to families with special needs so that they feel confident about the future of their loved ones.

Matus Law Firm works with local professionals to provide free information and webinars to the public on financial resources, estate planning, and what the future holds. With an Avvo Rating rating of 10.0, the firm has been featured on the Law Firm 500 every year for the past three consecutive years. They continue to receive praises, positive reviews, testimonials, and recommendations from their customers regarding their services.

David Leta from New Jersey states: "I have to write this recommendation for someone whose heart is so big and possesses a unique skill set that is most needed. Christine Matus of The Matus Law Group is highly regarded in the special needs circles and the only one I know who specializes in Estate Planning for Parents of Special Needs Children. What a relief Christine and her team are to parents who worry about their special needs child?s future. She is comforting while the consummate counselor.

"When I first met Christine and her team, immediately I felt at home. I felt welcomed. This is someone who has a beautiful special needs child herself and understands the stresses and fears that haunt parents and guardians. I highly recommend a conversation with Christine. I want you to feel what I felt."

"At Matus Law Group we are committed to making a difference in the community and for the families and individuals we represent. Our clients are treated like family by us. We believe in a team approach. Ms. Matus said that each member of the office is a wealth of knowledge and has the compassion and understanding to provide personalized and attentive care to customers. "We value our clients as much and as deeply as they appreciate us. I believe it shows in the representation we provide as well as the ongoing relationships we have with the families and the communities.

Families and individuals seek out those who are compassionate and have the legal knowledge and skills to help them with matters such as estate planning and future planning. Christine Matus and the Matus Law Group's talented group of estate planning lawyers are proud of their ability to make an impact on the lives of their clients.
