

Atlanta Personal Injury Attorney Stays In Close Contact With Community

August 03, 2021

Atlanta, Georgia - August 03, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The law firm of GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. is taking steps to explain the measures their team has taken to ensure everyone gets the legal help they need at a moment's notice. The firm also wishes to reassure their community that they will receive nothing less than the best legal representation possible in their personal injury cases, and this guarantee is due in large part to the passionate attorneys who put in long hours on behalf of their clients.

The firm's founder, Kenneth S. Nugent, may be the most well known individual on the team, especially given that he often takes on the role of the firm's public face. These marketing campaigns, however, illustrate only a small part of his commitment to his community and ensuring that everyone understands how (and where) to seek professional legal help if they are involved in an accident and wish to pursue compensation.

While his personal achievements and credentials can be found on the firm's website, the most relevant aspect of his contribution today may be the principles he has instilled in his team. Every member of the firm, for instance, has a passion for serving their community to the best of their ability, and this includes helping those whose financial circumstances or other obstacles might otherwise make seeking compensation all but impossible to attain. Next, he has ensured that the team can always be reached when needed. Given that accidents can occur at any time, and even a short delay might have far-reaching consequences, the team is on hand around the clock to answer calls for help. Similarly, the process of reaching an attorney has been simplified to the point that an accident victim can always get the help they need with a single click or phone call.

Notably, the firm has established no fewer than eight offices across Georgia, in Atlanta, Albany, Augusta, Columbus, Duluth, Macon, Savannah and Valdosta. This allows them to work with clients no matter where they are, in major cities as well as rural areas. In certain circumstances, a client may not be able to visit the firm to discuss their case. Should this occur, they can rest assured that the firm's attorneys are able and willing to travel to the client, being at their side within 24 - 48 hours. The team's presence throughout the state also means that each office is equipped to understand the intricacies of local life, including the communities they serve and local laws, lawyers and courts.

A top-rated Google review from Jayla Ball shares that, "Attorney Sterling was absolutely amazing! I was quite hesitant during the beginning of my case, but once Mr. Sterling was assigned to it, it went quickly after. He always called and followed up with me if there were any changes, simple check-ins and so on. This was my first car accident ever, and I was clueless as to how this whole process worked, but he definitely clarified everything for me to make sure I had a good understanding of what was going on. He's also very personable and professional! Excellent at what he does! I would recommend him to anyone I know who goes through any personal injuries. Thank you so much for all your hard work, Attorney Sterling! Keep being amazing at what you do."

Mindy McGee also says, "After going with a smaller firm a few years ago, I decided to "interview" law firms after my accident last year. I am so glad I went with Brad Valentine with Ken Nugent's law firm. They have handled Covid regulations on top of my case. Then, when I was in another accident, they handled that case too. I wouldn't have gotten the care I needed without going with Ken Nugent. I didn't have health insurance. Not only did I get good care, they also got more than I ever expected to receive. Very thankful for the case workers and for Brad. I would recommend them to anyone."
