New Jersey -- For over two decades, the New Jersey probate lawyers at the Matus Law Group have been representing clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. For many years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a special interest in the families with whom they work and their community, providing a distinct and caring approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We have a group of really dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not just an occupation but also a passion for us. Our life's work is to help people safeguard their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here every day," stated the probate lawyer. "We believe that we surpass what many people anticipate of their attorneys and, because of that, we have created something very special at the Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a unique connection with the special needs community. She is the mom of a daughter with Down syndrome and has committed a big portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular financial and estate planning needs. Ms. Matus helps educate the public about new resources and provides education and information in the special needs arena. As a gifted estate planning lawyer, she provides vital information about financial and estate planning for special needs households so they can worry less about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local professionals in order to provide totally free information and online webinars to inform the public about financial resources, estate planning, and what to expect for the future. The firm consistently wins honors and distinctions with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the past 3 years. Their customers continue to offer praise, favorable testimonials, and reviews concerning their services.

DOLLYK8KS from New Jersey states: "Christine and her team are the best! They helped us with estate planning, updating wills, and advanced health directives. We have peace of mind that should something happen, our family is taken care of. Thank you Matus Law Group!"

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the families and people whom we work with. We take a team effort approach and our clients are dealt with like family members. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to genuinely offer mindful and individualized care to our clients," stated Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our clients as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in both the representation we are able to provide and the continuing relationships we build with the households and the community."

When it comes to matters of estate preparation and preparation for the future, families, and individuals rely on those who can provide empathy in addition to legal ability and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the gifted team of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make a difference in the lives of their customers.
