New Jersey -- For over 20 years, the New Jersey trust attorney at the Matus Law Group have represented families in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. For many years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a particular interest in the families with whom they work and the community, providing a distinct and thoughtful approach to legacy and estate planning.

"We have a group of really dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not simply a vocation but a passion for us. Our life's work is to help families safeguard their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here each day," stated the trust attorney. "We believe we surpass what many individuals anticipate of their attorneys and, because of this, we have developed something really special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a unique connection with the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the parent of a child with Down syndrome and has devoted a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular financial and estate planning needs. She helps further knowledge about new resources and provides education and information in the unique needs arena. As a gifted estate preparation lawyer, she provides important information about monetary and estate preparation for special needs families so they can feel assured about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional professionals to offer totally free information and online webinars that help inform the public about financial resources, estate planning, and what to expect for the future. The firm consistently wins honors and accolades with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous 3 years. Their clients continue to provide praise, favorable reviews, and testimonials regarding their services.

C Melillo from New Jersey states: "I'm posting 4 stars based on my 1hr phone consultation which was not rushed, pleasant and informative. I may change to 5stars if my case is handled quickly and diligently. We'll see."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the households and people whom we represent. We take a team effort approach and our clients are treated like family members. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of understanding that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to truly offer attentive and individualized care to our customers," stated Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in both the representation we offer and the continuing relationships we build with the families and the community."

When it comes to matters of estate planning and preparation for the future, families and individuals rely on those who can provide compassion in addition to legal ability and understanding. Christine Matus, and the gifted group of estate planning lawyers at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make a difference in the lives of their customers.
