GA based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Macon would like to reach out to local residents who may be in search of an attorney who can assist them with any of a wide range of cases involving personal injury. The firm provides legal representation aimed at helping clients get the compensation they need following injury at the hands of a third party. By combining experience, expertise and a passion for producing excellence, the firm is extremely capable of guiding clients through this often difficult and stressful process.

The firm is always ready to speak with clients over the phone or online in order to come up with an effective plan of action that is guaranteed to produce results. One call is enough to get a dedicated team on board, and once they get to work on a case, their primary focus becomes the client and their needs. Given that the firm offers representation in a number of areas, including car accidents, medical malpractice, wrongful death and more, a client can always trust them to be by their side no matter how complicated a case can get.

The firm has access to an expansive and highly qualified legal team. As the firm proudly states on their website, ?Ken Nugent?s legal team is special. First, it?s large. In fact, our law firm is one of the largest in the Southeast devoted exclusively to helping injury victims and their families. When your everyday business is taking on large insurance companies and corporations on behalf of those wronged by their actions, size is absolutely an advantage. However, what makes us unique is much more than the amount of resources we commit to each client?s case.?

The team is made up of the top graduates from some of the best colleges and universities around the country, highly driven individuals from a diverse racial and economic backgrounds and legal authors with work that has appeared in publications like the Georgia State Bar Journal along with other law school journals.

?If you need a lawyer to represent you or a family member, just make one call to Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C,? the firm says. ?Our knowledge of Georgia laws, experience with local courts, contacts with medical professionals and our legal experience set us apart from other personal injury firms. Depending on the case, we either work on getting a fair settlement for your injuries or take your case to trial. Being involved in a car accident can be confusing and complicated. Getting proper medical attention should be your first priority, and we can help you find qualified doctors. After your emergency medical needs are addressed, contact us at one of our locations. Our attorneys will come to you even if you are in the hospital. They can determine if you have a personal injury case and advise you on the best next steps to take to ensure your rights are protected.?

In Georgia the process of filing a car accident lawsuit, while not particularly complicated, is best handled by a professional attorney who understands the law surrounding such cases at a very advanced level. The attorney must take into account a number of factors, including the negligence of other drivers, the extent of the injuries and damage to property. A settlement can cover a range of details, from medical bills to lost wages and so on. The goal of a settlement is to help the plaintiff cover the cost of any inconveniences caused by an accident, and it is the attorney?s job to ensure that the plaintiff gets adequate compensation.

A number of people have left excellent reviews of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. on various platforms. One 5-Star Google review from a client named Rob says, ?I was very pleased with the services I received from this law firm. The attorneys were very informative regarding my case. I worked closely with Ashley Sanders, Ashley Pitts, Alicia Barnes and another attorney whose name I cannot recall. They were all very professional and communicated with me every step of the way. I will definitely utilize their services again in the future if ever needed.?
