

Yadi?s Yummies, St. Peters, Announces Expansion Grand Opening 8/28

August 12, 2021

August 12, 2021 -
On Saturday, 8/28 from 10a-6p, Yadi?s Yummies Treats for Dogs announces the Grand Opening of ?The Rescue Me Dog Cafe? and a new retail expansion located at 1251 Jungerman, St. Peters, Mo.

Jessica and Cindy Eisenbeis, are owners of Yadi?s Yummies. Yadi?s Yummies mission is to raise money through store sales to help abused and abandoned dogs in rescues get medical procedures they need to get adopted and live a healthy, happy life.

Opening a cafe ?is a dream come true,? says Jessica. ?I wanted to have a place where people can bring their dog and enjoy a treat made by me and my co-workers. We work really hard to make treats that are healthy and good for dogs.?

Every Saturday, Yadi?s Yummies will partner with a local bakery to provide homemade goodies for pet parents while Jessica will make sure she has plenty of treats available for her four-legged friends.

?We are grateful for the many ways people have embraced Yadi?s Yummies and Jessica?s mission over the past three years. The expansion of the store enables us to provide a larger array of pet gifts, supplies, and new trends to our customers,? says Cindy Eisenbeis.

Yadi?s Yummies is a very special place. It has given meaning and purpose to Jessica and her friends of all abilities to be productive and contributing people in our community.

Yadi?s Yummies is very excited to meet old and new customers at our Grand Re-Opening on Saturday.
