Ocean County -- The Matus Law Group has been representing New Jersey families for more than 20 years in estate planning, special need planning, asset protection and real estate law matters. Christine Matus and her team have been a part of the community for many years and have taken an interest in the families and communities they serve. This has allowed them to provide a unique and compassionate approach when it comes to legacy planning and estate planning.

"We are fortunate to have a dedicated group at Matus Law Group. It's not only a profession but also a passion. "Our life's work, we believe, is to help families secure their future and their loved ones. We are passionate about what our team does every day," said the estate planning lawyer. We believe we are better than most people expect from our attorneys, and that has led to something truly unique at Matus Law Group.

Ms. Matus is the founder of the firm and has a personal connection to the special needs community. Ms. Matus is the mother of a Down syndrome daughter and has dedicated a large portion of her practice to special-need families and their specific financial and estate planning requirements. Ms. Matus provides information and education in relation to the special needs of each household. She is a skilled estate planning lawyer who provides vital information on estate and monetary preparation for special-needs households to help them worry less about the future.

Matus Law Firm works with regional professionals to offer free information and webinars online that inform the public about finances and estate planning. With an Avvo Rating rating of 10.0, the company has won numerous honors and awards. It also appeared on the Law Firm 500 in the past three years. They continue to receive praises, positive reviews, testimonials, and recommendations from their customers regarding their services.

Henry from Ocean County states: "Christine and her staff are top-notch. They welcome new clients like old friends. The needs of the client are paramount. If I know of a person needing Christine's services, I tell them that this is the place you need to go to."

Matus Law Group is committed to making a positive difference in the lives of the people we serve and the communities they live in. Our clients are treated like family by us. We believe in a team approach. Ms. Matus said that each member of the firm is able to draw on their own knowledge and offer customized and mindful care. "We value our customers as much and as deeply as they appreciate us. I believe it shows in the representation we can provide and the ongoing relationships we can build with the families and community."

Families and individuals depend on people who are compassionate and understand the law when it comes to estate planning and future planning. Christine Matus and the Matus Law Group's gifted team of estate planning lawyers are proud of their ability to make a positive difference in their clients' lives.
