Matthew Miglin has recently launched his mentoring service, which is designed specifically for business contractors. He has observed that the service he has provided can increase profitability by at least 10%. Those who need further details of the mentoring service can take a look at <https://www.linkedin.com/in/matthewmiglin>.

"Contractors are often struggling and looking for innovative ways to increase their business income and profits," says Matthew Miglin. "I want to offer them my expertise in the contracting work, mentoring them on the road to success. There are some things that you simply can't do alone, nor should you have to."

Matthew Miglin has many years of experience in the contracting industry, as well as having been a corporal with the U.S. Marine Corps for eight years. He is a licensed counselor and Certified Seminar Leader with the American Seminar Leaders Association. It has been pointed out that his dedication to his work and being a servant of God are just two of the things that have made him such a successful contractor, author, speaker and coach. It is this success that he wants to share with others.

The testimonials on the work that Miglin has done before have been overwhelmingly positive. "Matthew David Miglin is such a inspiring ambassador for helping his coaching and mentoring clients to truly stretch and improve their prosperity and proficiency," says David Cooper. "When you hire Matthew, he takes the most unusual steps to identify your skills, and help build such a solid foundation for your new growth and solid financial skills based upon areas of your life that you are already so confident with. Although I have shared stages with other great speakers like Zig Ziglar, Jim Rohn, and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, it is such an honor to give Matthew my very highest recommendation as a speaker and coach."

The website is also regularly updated with relevant hints and tips and lists to various publications by Miglin.
