West Coast Marketers, a business in Beverly Hills, California, has released a comprehensive review of the latest product The Rich Jerk to inform the public about how to earn money online using simple proven strategies. Having been one of the authorities in product reviews, they have laid out all the details of what the potential customers can learn from this course.

"This course is a breathe of fresh air!" says Mary Von Hurst, one of the staff from West Coast Marketers. "The creator of this product has carefully made the strategies very detailed so that this can be followed even by a 43-year-old woman like me who is starting out doing some ventures online," she added.

For readers who are not familiar who "The Rich Jerk" is, he is an internet marketer from California who is known for his arrogance and over the top marketing strategies which have worked over the years and made him a fortune. He has established multiple online income streams from affiliate sites to product launches and niche sites. He has also coached multiple students who became wealthy as well by following his exact blueprint on how to become successful in the very competitive market.

For internet marketers who are struggling to earn online, West Coast Marketers strongly recommends this course. They also suggest to learn from it as much as possible and take action from the step by step tutorials laid out in the program. They also provide exclusive The Rich Jerk Bonus for those wanting to get more value for their money.

For those who have questions about the review as well as instructions on how to avail of the bonus, you can email Mary Von Hurst at mary.vonhurst29@gmail.com. To know more details on how to access the full course, head over to the official Rich Jerk Website.
