Alexander D. Napolin, a 100% plaintiff-side personal injury lawyer is helping clients who are searching online for "car accident lawyer near me" in Glendora, get the justice they deserve after they've been harmed by the negligence of another party.

Victims who file personal injury claims have to jump through many legal hurdles to get the compensation that they are owed. The insurance companies representing the party at fault try their best to deny the victim the claim because the money is coming out of their pockets. They throw the book at the victim as a way to intimidate them into taking a pittance as a settlement and hoping that it will be the end of the matter.

Alexander Napolin believes that after an accident, the victim should primarily focus on their own wellbeing and leave the difficult part of negotiating with the insurance companies up to a trained and experienced lawyer such as himself. According to Alexander Napolin, the system is intentionally made to be obtuse to confuse and scare away even those that may have a legitimate claim. Someone who is recovering from an accident might find it difficult to follow up on all the paperwork, answer all relevant phone calls, and meet the tight deadlines that have been put in place by law. This works in the favor of the insurance adjusters who find it easy to dismiss claims based on the smallest of technicalities, thus depriving those who have suffered through a lot, of the compensation that they are duly owed.

When asked about his role in personal injury claims, Alexander, considered by many to be the best accident injury attorney Glendora has to offer says, "We have all heard horror stories from friends, relatives, and colleagues who fought against the insurance companies to get compensated for the simplest of claims. The victims are always let down by the treatment they receive at the hands of the companies, leading to stress and anxiety that compounds the suffering of someone who has already been through a lot of pain. I have spent my entire life outsmarting and outworking the insurance adjusters that take a perverse joy in denying the claims of victims who are suffering due to no fault of their own. They are not your friends. In fact, their motives are downright opposed to your best interests. So the next time you are going toe to toe with them in the legal arena, I recommend that you have someone like me in your corner. I'll listen to all the details of your case and guide you with the correct information to make sure you receive the fullest and fairest compensation. Call us today for a consultation and you will find out why I'm considered the best personal injury lawyer Glendora has to offer."

Alexander D. Napolin represents victims who file personal injury claims for incidents such as dog bites, auto accidents, traumatic brain injuries, whiplash, truck accidents, slip and fall injuries, medical malpractice, workers' compensation claims, boating accidents, pedestrian accidents, assault, and products liability claims.
