August 24, 2021

August 24, 2021 -
Straight Arrow Roofing, a roofing company in Brantford, has received a positive 5-star review on its Google My Business page from a satisfied customer. The review shows appreciation towards the founder of the company, Joel Guerra, for the amazing work that he and his team did on the customer?s job.

The review says, ?Joel and his team are worthy of the praise they receive. A roofing specialist who is constantly looking to improve your roof replacement experience. Very detailed oriented and informative. A very pleasant to deal with professional. He doesn't cut corners, goes well above the average, and certainly went well above my expectations. A detailed inspection upon completion to assure you your roof is watertight as well as showing you the exceptional details he expects from his finished product. Highly recommended. Paul.?

When reached out to respond to the glowing recommendation, Joel says, ?We would like to thank Paul for the amazing testimonial. We are glad that we were able to serve you and fix all of your roofing problems. We are even more thankful that you took the time out of your busy schedule to let us know exactly how you felt about the service you received. We take every Straight Arrow Roofing customer review to heart, whether it is positive or negative. We take joy in reading the positive experiences and use them to motivate ourselves every day. We pay close attention to the negative feedback too and choose to learn from the constructive criticism that we receive. We do this to make our service better for all of our future customers. Running a business is a constant process of learning and improving and we are grateful that our customers are with us on this journey. We would like to thank Paul again for his recommendation and we are looking forward to working with him again in the future.?

When talking about the company?s journey from humble beginnings to its current roster of several trained roofing experts and contractors, Joel says, ?I started this business out of the back of a truck. In ten short years, we have grown year on year due to our values of hard work, professionalism, and integrity. We pay close attention to the customer?s needs and then go out of our way to make their experience with us as pleasurable and smooth as possible. We give you definite time and money estimates that we hold sacred. We stick to our word and always finish the tasks within the allocated resources. When I began this company, I used to load all the necessary materials in the back of the truck and drive to each job location myself. I?ve incorporated all the learnings that I received over the years while putting my nose to the grindstone into a high-performing team that today works with the same enthusiasm and focus that I did all those years ago. All my professional wisdom has been instilled in the team that I?ve assembled today. This team has been slowly built through a painstaking vetting of both competence and character. So if you are looking for a contractor that offers roofing in Brantford, Ontario, give our company a call. We would love to take care of all your roofing maintenance, repair, and installation needs.?
