

Fastfit Automotive: Still Operational Amidst Tightening Lockdowns

August 19, 2021

August 19, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New COVID-19 exposure sites are identified across regional NSW as the Delta variant seeps out of Sydney. Dubbo remains in lockdown, with six new sites listed by government health officials. So many businesses have been affected. This is expected to worsen due to lockdowns of majority areas in Australia caused by the pandemic outbreak. However, Fast Fit announces that they remain operational amidst all chaos surrounding them from various sources.

Attention has been brought to the fact that Sydney remains at enormous risk for the outbreak of Delta variant, and this comes as a massive blow to the city's expected grip on safety. With every new site discovered, health officials are issued instructions to take necessary safety guidelines. Fast Fit management ensures that they are obeying all Government protocols concerning personal hygiene and social distancing. If there is any questions or concerns about visiting their workshop in Leichhardt, visit the website for more information from them directly.
