New Jersey -- For more than 20 years, New Jersey's estate planning attorneys at Matus Law Group have been representing clients in matters relating to estate planning, special needs planning, asset protection, real estate law, and estate planning. Christine Matus, along with her team, has taken an active interest in the communities they serve. This has allowed them to offer a thoughtful and unique approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a team of very dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not just an occupation but a passion for us. Our life's work is to help families safeguard their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are enthusiastic about what we do here every day," said the estate planning attorney. "We believe we go beyond what the majority of people anticipate of their attorneys and, because of that, we have created something extremely special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a unique connection with the special needs community. She is the mom of a daughter with Down syndrome and has committed a big portion of her practice to special needs families and their specific estate planning and financial needs. In addition, Ms. Matus helps educate the public about brand-new resources and offers education and relevant information in the unique needs arena that families might have the ability to utilize. As a skilled estate planning lawyer, she offers critical information about financial and estate preparation for special needs families so they can have peace of mind about their loved one's future.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other local professionals so as to provide free information and online webinars to educate the general public about financial resources, estate planning, and what to anticipate for the future. The company consistently wins honors and distinctions with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has actually appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous three years. Their clients continue to provide praise, positive testimonials, and reviews regarding their services.

Jeff Hall from New Jersey states: "I recently found myself with the task of dealing with will and estate issues for my mother. I was recommended to the Matus Law Group, where I found attorneys with the experience and knowledge to assist me with my situation and other estate planning. They guided me through this unfamiliar process with professionalism and patience. I was very pleased with the service I received and will be using them for my personal planning in the near future. I highly recommend the Matus Law Group."

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the households and people that we represent. We take a team effort approach and our clients are treated like family. Each member of the firm has their own wealth of knowledge that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to really provide attentive and tailored care to our customers," said Ms. Matus. "We value our clients as much as they value us, and I believe it shows in both the representation we provide and the continuing relationships we build with the households and the community."

When it pertains to matters of estate planning and planning for the future, individuals and families look to those who can offer empathy in addition to legal skill and understanding. Christine Matus, and the skilled team of estate preparation attorneys at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to make positive changes in the lives of their customers.
