Dallas, Texas - August 24, 2021 -
Widdlytinks is a company that realizes that sometimes people need to add a little extra something to a room to make it more unique or set the mood. That?s exactly what its wall art prints are designed to do. There is no better example of that than this company?s Halloween wall art collection. It helps make any room feel much more festive and appropriate for the occasion on the scariest day on the calendar. That?s why the Halloween signs by Widdlytinks keep getting more popular each year.

Amy Anderson, a company spokesperson, says, ?We are proud of the thought and attention that goes into all of our wall art prints but we especially enjoy every Halloween season. That?s because we have a lot of fun helping our customers get the right Halloween wall art for their needs and then seeing the creative ways that they use it. Our Halloween print décor takes any scarily decorated room to a much eerier level than what just evil-faced pumpkins, skeleton wall hangings, and fake spider webs can do.?

The company spokesperson went on to say that there are over 20 art pieces in their Halloween art collection. Many are themed to help set the mood for the occasion. This includes such art prints as their Spooky Old Salem Cemetery Halloween Sign and their Rustic Farmhouse Feelin? Witchy Halloween Sign. She stated that for those that have some fake witches set up in their candy giving area that their Black Cat Apothecary Vintage Style Halloween Sign, Vintage Halloween Spooky Witch Society Sign, and Nightshade Potion Shop Creepy Gothic Halloween Sign can add a nice touch to that room. Other popular pieces in the company?s Halloween collection include its Industrial Gothic Family Boolevard Halloween Sign Black Personalized with Family Name and its Modern Farmhouse Trick or Treat Sign. Anderson mentioned that all of their Halloween signs are printed on thick, acid-free, archival-grade, poly-cotton blend canvas to provide greater durability and to prevent them from yellowing over time. Each also has dried pine stretcher bars attached to the frame to prevent warping, a desired 1.5? frame depth, and have attached sawtooth hangers so they can immediately be placed on the wall area of a customer?s choice shortly after arriving. She says they also offer their decorative wall art pieces in many different sizes including large formats.

In addition to its Halloween decoration ideas, this company offers many more seasonal types of wall art. This includes its wall art that?s perfect for Valentine?s Day gifts, Christmas signs, and their popular Spring and Easter wall art collections. Widdlytinks also offers vintage style, rustic farmhouse, Christian-themed, and modern industrial personalized wall signs too. The company does this because they recognize that personalized canvas wall art is a versatile option that tends to make a big impact on the rooms that its placed in. Personalization also makes its wall art prints suitable for housewarmings, weddings, and other keepsake-type gifts. Some of the different personalization options on many of its art prints include a family name, individual names, year established for families, and some even come with state & city customizations.

Anderson added that every one of their decorative wall art pieces has been created with care and attention to detail by an award-winning artist with over 20-years of experience in their specific type of art design. Since Widdlytinks artwork can often have personalization features added to it, this also makes its art pieces distinctive and exclusive. She also wanted to be sure to mention that Widdlytinks products are designed and manufactured right in the USA and they can only be purchased within the United States. Free shipping is also included with every purchase. Those that would like more information on the wall art prints that Widdlytinks offers can visit their website. It?s easy to place an order and each wall art print they offer has a photo and a description of it. The company spokesperson says they also have a contact form on their website for those that have any questions or concerns about the wall art by Widdlytinks.
