Essendon, Victoria based TJD Accounting Services is reaching out to the wider community to share information about their services and explain how they can help small to medium enterprises (SMEs). More information about the company can be found at the following link: <https://tjdaccounting.com.au/services/for-businesses/>.

Dominic Murphy of TJD Accounting Services says, "If you're thinking of establishing a new business but are not quite sure where you should begin, you might want to consider looking for some expert advice and support. Having a professional look over your business plan, review it and provide you with guidance and structure that applies to your requirements can go a long way in ensuring that you start off on the right foot."

They continue, "The team at TJD Accounting can help you review your business plan and identify the most appropriate tax structure for your situation. We can also assist with all the necessary registrations required (ABN, TFN, GST, PAYG etc), as well as provide business advice on the financial requirements of the business. With so many moving pieces to consider, we understand that going into business can be overwhelming. So let us help you."

As the company explains, when a business is first launched, there are a number of taxes and responsibilities its management team needs to be aware of. On top of what is mentioned by Murphy, business owners also need to consider the tax implications of their business structure, the records they need to keep, deductions they can claim and a number of other aspects. Whether it is a completely new business or one that has been active for years, business planning is more often than not the key to success.

TJD Accounting Services provides invaluable assistance that is personalized to the particular needs of businesses, depending on the industry they operate in. The services provided by the company include reviewing a client's business plans, income tax returns, tax planning, accounting and bookkeeping and strategic planning ? alongside professional commercial business advisory services. Learn more here: <https://markets.financialcontent.com/kelownadailycourier/news/read/41577015>.

The services provided by TJD Accounting Services have proven valuable to both individuals and businesses operating in the area. In a client testimonial found on the company's website, representatives for Endeck International Pty Ltd say, "We have used TJD Accounting for more than 10 years for Australian tax advisory and tax lodgement services, and we are extremely satisfied with their performance standards and professionalism. We started using TJD when we bought our first Australian property as overseas residents approximately 13 years ago. We have since migrated to Australia eight years ago, and as tax residents we continue to use TJD Accounting for our personal tax as well as our business tax reporting. We find TJD Accounting accountants, especially Adisa Mesic, to be very professional, knowledgeable and responsive to our requests for assistance in all enquiries pertaining to tax, accounting and regulatory requirements. We highly recommend TJD Accounting to anyone looking for a qualified, professional and customer-friendly accounting company to handle their tax matters as well as business accounting services."

The company also has a perfect 5-Star rating on their Google profile. In his review, Jason O'Brien says, "We've been using the Essendon accountant, Dominic Murphy, and his associates at TJD Accounting now for four years. In that time, with their help, we have been able to stabilise our finances and to increase our profits with their advice. I recommend TJD to everyone I know with a small business."

In addition to serving Essendon, the accounting company also assists businesses and individuals in the surrounding areas, including but not limited to Niddrie, Airport West, Strathmore, East Keilor and Tullamarine.
