New Jersey -- For over twenty years, the New Jersey estate lawyers at the Matus Law Group have been representing clients in matters of estate planning, special needs planning, elder law, asset protection, and real estate law. Throughout the years, Christine Matus and her team have taken a significant interest in the families with whom they work and their community, providing a distinct and compassionate approach to estate and legacy planning.

"We have a team of really dedicated individuals at The Matus Law Group. It is not just an occupation but also a passion for all of us. Our life's work is to help people safeguard their future and the future of their loved ones, and we are passionate about what we do here every day," stated the estate lawyer. "We believe we exceed what many people anticipate from their attorneys and, because of that, we have developed something extremely special at The Matus Law Group."

Ms. Matus, the founding attorney, has a personal connection with the special needs community. She is the parent of a child with Down syndrome and has committed a large portion of her practice to special needs families and their particular financial and estate planning needs. Ms. Matus helps further knowledge about brand-new resources and offers education and relevant information in the special needs arena that families might be able to use. As a skilled estate preparation attorney, she provides vital information about monetary and estate planning for special needs households so they can feel comfortable about their loved one's futures.

The Matus Law Firm partners with other regional professionals in order to provide totally free information and online webinars to inform the public about finances, estate planning, and what to anticipate for the future. The company regularly wins honors and honors with an Avvo Rating of 10.0 and has appeared on the Law Firm 500 for the previous three years. Their clients continue to offer praise, positive reviews, and testimonials concerning their services.

Allison Tilton from New Jersey states: Hands down, Matus Law Group is one of the best estate planning and special needs planning law firms in New Jersey! They have a great reputation and they are known for their EXCELLENT customer service, legal work, and results. I highly recommend them and I wouldn't hesitate to refer them to my friends or loved ones looking for an estate planning or special needs planning law firm that provides outstanding legal representation.

"At the Matus Law Group, we are committed to making a difference in our community and to the families and individuals that we represent. We take a team effort approach and we treat our clients like family members. Each member of the office has their own wealth of understanding that they draw from and have the compassion and understanding that it takes to genuinely provide attentive and individualized care to our clients," said Ms. Matus. "We appreciate our customers as much as they appreciate us, and I think it shows in both the representation we are able to offer and the continuing relationships we develop with the families and the community."

When it concerns matters of estate preparation and planning for the future, individuals and families look to those who can provide compassion in addition to legal skill and knowledge. Christine Matus, and the skilled team of estate planning lawyers at the Matus Law Group, pride themselves on their ability to do this and to make positive changes in the lives of their clients.
