

Premier Private Rides Lists Top 10 Music Venues in Metro Atlanta

August 24, 2021

Peachtree City, Georgia - August 24, 2021 -
The #1 Atlanta private transportation services provider has posted an article that lists the 10 most popular music venues in Metro Atlanta. Considered a music mecca, Atlanta has an impressive music scene with dozens of established venues and historical music landmarks.

Cadence Bank Amphitheatre tops the list of ten of the best music venues in Metro Atlanta that hosts some of the most eloquent artists who light up the music atmosphere with their unforgettable night-time shows. Ideally located within the Chastain Park area of Buckhead, the amphitheater is a walking distance from a golf course, tennis courts, and a Horse Park.

Verizon Amphitheatre is widely popular as a concert venue in scenic surroundings. The leading Atlanta private transportation service suggests that concert-goers plan ahead to avoid excessive wait time in an area notorious for its traffic. Luckily, experienced chauffeurs at the Premier Private Rides are aware of this and are experts in maneuvering through narrow traffic to safely transport music lovers to their favorite amphitheater.

Cellairis Amphitheatre at Lakewood can easily host 7,000 fans, while 12,000 can enjoy their favorite music concerts in the lawn area. The Fox Theatre comes next on the list of Atlanta music venues. Located on the edge of downtown, the theater is the midtown?s historic centerpiece for live performances. The sight is one of a kind and well-known for its amazing décor and inner design, with its 3,622 pipes.

Gas South Arena, formerly known as Infinite Energy Arena, is a showstopper on the list of top Atlanta music venues with a wide seating area that offers decent views from any vantage point. Home to the Atlanta Gladiators and Georgia Swarm professional lacrosse team, the venue hosts plenty of concerts to keep the Atlanta music lovers busy and entertained.

Tabernacle is an old baptist church in the heart of downtown Atlanta. It plays host to thousands of music fans who visit the venue to hear their favorite musicians live.

Variety Playhouse is another popular music venue in Atlanta that remains busy with a diverse schedule. The two-story venue continues to enthrall visitors with its grubby charm and pristine sound. It?s an appropriate venue for music lovers to sing with their favorite artists because of the fine-tuned acoustics in Variety Playhouse.

The EARL is an East Atlanta favorite for a closer live music experience.

Buckhead Theatre enthralls visitors with its world-class accommodations, unmatched lighting and sound specs, and an elegant upper balcony.

Atlanta Symphony Hall bewitches visitors with its welcoming ambiance and award-winning performances.

With plenty of concert venues to explore in Atlanta, Premiere Private Ride offers top luxury limo service for all music enthusiasts that want to take advantage of living in such an eventful city. Read the entire article on Premier Private Rides' website.
