Their dinner menu includes the most authentic Italian antipasti to start a good meal. Their antipasto platter is a must-try on their menu, a collection of the finest Italian meats and cheeses, roasted red peppers, and fresh olives. The Calamari Nonna Rosa, calamari sauteed with capers, garlic, and kalamata olives in a spicy red sauce, is also a favorite among the restaurant patrons.

Going further on their menu, Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant also offers pasta and entrees that would remind anyone of their memories of Italy or a glimpse of it. For vegetarians, they have Gnocchi Sorrentina, potato dumplings in a cherry tomato sauce with melted mozzarella.

The traditional Cucina creating authentic Italian dishes is also proud of their mouthwatering entrees. Their menu includes various veal and chicken recipes that'll satiate even the fussiest eaters. A favorite on their menu is their version of the Veal Saltimbocca, a Roman specialty. It is made of fresh veal loin pounded thin, sautéed in a white wine browned butter sauce, topped with prosciutto, spinach, and mozzarella.
