Black Business Owner Kimberly Greene Speaking at the blackbusinessexpousa.com on Thursday 8/26/2021

August 25, 2021

August 25, 2021 -
Kimberly Greene, owner of B.L.A.C.K, will speaking on the topic of ?Black Businesses-Why do they Matter?? at the Black Business Expo Online. B.L.A.C.K. Is an apparel company that, through educational partnerships with Black historical museums and organizations, allows people to celebrate the accomplishments Negro Leagues, Buffalo Soldiers and Tuskegee Airmen with licensed, high quality merchandise. The company was started because black history, which is AMERICAN history, is not taught in schools and the founders use their apparel to get the message to consumers. The product line consists of jackets, jerseys, caps, tees etc is fully licensed. This assures that money goes back to support the Negro League Baseball Museum, Buffalo Soldiers Museum and Tuskegee Airmen Association. And it appeals to anyone interested in American History, Baseball history, military history and women in history.

Ms Greene will speak on different elements of black sports and military history, the current environment inside and outside the workplace and how all of these things relate to black entrepreneurship. Her unique, informative and entertaining style of presentation promises to leave all viewers wanting to know more.

?As a woman, I feel it is incredibly important to be able to show other women that we can be successful in a space often occupied by men. I sell historical apparel focused on sports and military. There aren?t many women doing this! In addition, I am a black woman, and know the importance of not only knowing, sharing and protecting our history, but also the importance of owning, growing and supporting the businesses in our community.?

Full details of this event can be found at www.blackbusinessexpousa.com. Ms Greene will be speaking at 7PM EST on Thursday, August 27. Those interested can find her online at www.blackB4U.com and at all social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn and YouTube) @blackB4U.
