

Gulf Shores Property Service Now Offers Suggestions and Tips on Getting Prepared For Winter

October 08, 2015

October 08, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Gulf Shores Property Services, located in Gulf Shores Alabama, recently started to offer suggestions and tips for homeowners to help them to be prepared for the upcoming winter season. These suggestions to maintain the home can be found on the company's website.

While the company cares about the concerns of every homeowner regardless of the season, this is especially so when winter approaches. With their services and their expertise, the company is also willingly providing advice to customers who do not know how they can prepare their homes to endure the effects of the cold season, posted on the companies website weekly. The company would like to make everybody aware how they can keep their homes a safe place to stay at all times. With winter approaching in the Gulf Shores area of Alabama, the company advises that now is the time to get ready for the usual cold fronts that pass through the area. It is not unusual for high winds to blow through the area, and making sure that roofing, siding and flashing are properly fastened to the house is critical as this could lead to more home damage.

Gene Montecchie, owner of Gulf Shores Property Service, provides handyman services and aims to be the one-stop shop for a good selection of home maintenance as well as repair solutions. Mr. Montecchie noted,

"I'm from Alabama and lived here most of my life. As a homeowner, I know how easy it is to get behind on home maintenance. I have also seen how small problems can become large headaches if they are not dealt with. We hope to point out through our website some quick things to watch for that could prevent greater damage down the road."

Their team of service technicians are all highly skilled craftsmen who have years of experience in the industry, giving their customers with assurance regarding the quality of their service. They underwent training to hone their skills and to make them more efficient in fulfilling their responsibilities, and to get the job done properly and on time. Gulf Shores Property Service's team of experts consists of uniformed and fully insured technicians who will arrive at the doorsteps of their customers just on time within a marked vehicle and will ensure that the whole job will be done within the time frame. The website aims to provide a useful service when it comes to maintenance, improvement and repair for business and homes. They specialize in painting, carpentry, flooring and cleaning services suitable not just for homes but also for offices located in the Gulf Shores/Mobile Alabama area.

As a bonus for their customers, Gulf Shores Property Service is giving tips and suggestions to homeowners and businesses to help them secure their properties now that the winter season is approaching. The company is willing to talk more about this matter by calling them at 251-299-2028.
