August 31, 2021 -

Abreu Movers, a New York moving company known for its excellence in the moving industry, has launched long-distance moving services. That means its old and new clients can now move from one state to another under their wing. The company is a top-rated service provider in neighborhoods like SoHo, Astoria, Lower Manhattan, Chinatown, Long Island City, and Tribeca.

Long Distance Movers in New York

The company is delighted to announce its new service, widening options for long-distance movers in this city. According to online reviews, customers are happy with the high quality and availability of assistance they get from them. Many locals welcome these new updates who plan on moving out of state soon.

Cross Country Movers NYC

Abreu Movers NYC takes responsibility for their clients' fragile items and takes pride in moving everything as if it were their own. They also care about the client's belongings and show no slowing down with this latest service. This company brings in more customers by providing excellent services for moving delicate things such as pianos or refrigerators, which break easily during transit.

With this new service, the moving company hopes to win over the trust of many by making long-distance relocations easier on everyone involved. Those wishing to learn more about this newly launched service or their other services can contact them either through their website or by dialing their number listed online.

The company also hopes that by expanding its moving capabilities and customer base by launching a service that adds miles, its list of satisfied customers will, too. Any client in areas like Flushing, Upper West Side, Lower Manhattan, Park Slope, Tribeca, and East Harlem can now have access to the moving services of these movers in New York.
