September 07, 2021

Dallas, Texas - September 07, 2021 -
Widdlytinks is offering a wide range of customized canvas wall art for sale. The store carries a plethora of eye-catching designs that can adorn the walls of any home or office with ease.

Widdlytinks carries wall art that can be categorized in different styles and themes such as rustic, modern, traditional, industrial, vintage, farmhouse, Christian, and more. Its range of wall art can be bought for specific seasons or holidays such as Halloween, Valentine?s Day, Christmas, Spring, Easter, and more. The signs also make great gifts for occasions such as birthdays, anniversaries, housewarmings, and weddings. The customizable canvas prints and their uses are only limited by the customer?s imagination as they are free to use them to decorate their own property or gift them to someone in their life that they cherish.

Widdlytinks wall art is also customizable and offers personalization options for both home and business environments. Many of the designs on offer have an option to include customized text during purchase. This can be anything from family names, city names, state names, year established, or whatever the buyer sees fit. This helps the buyer make the design truly their own. The customization makes it a purchase that they won?t forget soon and would love to show off to their guests, friends, and family members for years to come.

Widdlytinks offer a wide variety of unique made-to-order designs available in a number of sizes including large format. The designs are printed on high-quality canvas which doesn?t fade with time, retaining its look. The signs are mounted on dried pine stretcher bars that ensure the frame will not warp or bow over time. The canvas used for printing is a thick, archival grade, poly-cotton blend canvas that will provide great durability. The canvas is pH neutral and acid-free which means that the canvas will not yellow over time.

A spokesperson for Widdlytinks talks about the designs on the store by saying, ?The design language, that we decided to stick to when we first set up the store, and which is evident in all of the pieces on sale right now, is impactful and mesmerizing. We wanted each and every piece to be its own bold statement. We wanted to give designs that didn?t disappear into the background of a home but accentuated it. We also wanted the designs to kick off interesting conversations. The sheer amount of choice of designs that we have made available and the malleability of the designs through customizations make it so that the designs can fit in any room or decor. If you are looking for a design that you hope to showcase for a long time and be your daily source of inspiration, Widdlytinks has the perfect one for you.?
