Brokers Lamina, a Vancouver company with over 15 years of experience in brokering financial assistance to those in need, has been receiving numerous glowing reviews on its Google My Business page from satisfied customers. Interested customers can read the company's reviews by heading over to the link: <https://g.page/r/CVabbzN9tpgyEAg/review>.

One of the most recent Lamina Brokers reviews says, "Great service, fast and professional. Five stars!" A representative for the company responded to the review by saying, "It means the world to us to be able to help. And we're very grateful for your Lamina review. Thank you, Meredith. Now that you have an account with us if you ever need us in the future it will go even faster."

Another recent 5-star Lamina Brokers review from another happy customer says, "Great place to get fast money. Great service!" to which the company's representative responded, "Giving you access to quick money is what we're all about. Happy we're able to help. Thank you for leaving a Lamina review, Joel."

A spokesperson for the company responded to the reviews by saying, "We are delighted to be of service to those across the country who might be in a financial bind and need some quick assistance to tide them over. We offer bespoke financial assistance with multiple options of repayment that give you the freedom to choose how much you want to borrow and how you want to pay it back. We are here to work with you and give you all the assistance that you need to get your life back on track. Financial setbacks are a part of life and we want to make sure that a sudden expense does not derail it. We love hearing from the thousands of customers that we have helped so far. It makes us proud of the service we are providing and keeps us enthusiastic about touching the lives of those that come to us for help. Give us a call today or head over to our website to find out more about how we can make a difference to you in your hour of need. You can also head over to our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/LaminaBrokers> to stay updated with our services and contact us directly."

The company's base criteria for qualifying for financial assistance is for the applicant to be over 18 years of age and that they should have a steady income which does not include certain government benefits. On average, the amount borrowed will bear 30% interest annually, excluding brokerage fees which might vary according to the amount borrowed and the time required to pay it back. The company requires no documentation if the applicant uses online banking. For those who don't use online banking, a pay stub, a void check, 30 to 60 days of bank statements, and a picture of a photo id are required. The applicant can finish the entire process online and send over the relevant documents by either email or fax.

The company boasts of an application process that takes less than 10 minutes to complete from start to finish. The company makes available agents, to help the applicant through the process if they get stuck on any issues. Brokers Lamina makes it possible to receive funds overnight within 12 hours whereas returning customers have the possibility of receiving funds within the hour.
