September 14, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside, a firm based in Riverside, CA, wants to point out that a victim of a car accident will need to do a number of things after the incident. It is important to note that California follows a fault-based car insurance scheme, which implies that a car accident victim doesn't have to comply with any kind of threshold before filing a lawsuit or claim after an accident. Alexander D. Napolin, who heads the firm, explains that those who have been hurt in a car accident will need to consult with the top accident injury attorney in Riverside and avoid listening to the suggestions made by the insurance adjuster.

"Choosing an accident injury law firm with a reputation of success is important," says Alexander D. Napolin. "My approach when prosecuting accident injury claims results in successful outcomes for my clients. When you hire my law firm, you acquire an energetic and diverse legal team dedicated to your success."

Aside from consulting with a dependable personal injury lawyer, a car accident victim will also need to get medical treatment as early as possible. It is always advisable to consult with a physician after an accident in order to have any injuries treated and to follow the advice of the doctor. It is always a good idea to consult with a health professional even if there seems to be no injury because some injuries, such as whiplash and spinal disc injury, will not be immediately felt after the accident. Because of the rush of adrenaline during the incident, some injuries may not be evident because the pain will not be immediately felt.

It is also important to write down a description of what happened, including as many details as possible. This must be done as soon as possible while the incident is still fresh in the victim's mind. When consulting with a car accident lawyer Riverside residents will likely be advised on what they need to do such as writing a description of the accident. That is why consulting with a personal injury attorney as early as possible is vital.

Another important task after the accident is to report it to the appropriate authorities. Car accidents will have to be reported to the sheriff since it is a public incident. And, of course, it is vital to choose a lawyer who is reliable when it comes to filing a claim or a lawsuit against the person at fault in a car accident. Alexander D. Napolin wants to emphasize that a firm's long existence and successes on previous cases is not sufficient to ensure the success of a particular client's case. Many other factors, such as the correct assessment of the case and its timely prosecution in such a way that the client's overall well-being is protected, are also essential.

Furthermore, Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside has developed a reputation of having quality personal injury lawyers in California. Alexander D. Napolin wants to add that he has developed a unique philosophy and technique that has provided him with a track record of success on thousands of accident injury cases.

It is also vital to note that the level of compensation that a car accident victim can rightfully claim goes beyond the amount needed to fix the car. There are also the expenses required for medical bills for treatment after the accident, and possibly some physical rehabilitation and lost wages because of the inability to work for a living as a result of the injuries and the required treatment.

It is also essential to consult with a personal injury lawyer because in a car accident, determining the at-fault party is needed and is often more complex than simply finding out 'who hit who.'
