Detroit, Michigan ? After announcing expansion for its service area last week, Detroit Party Bus Company has decided to expand its fleet to satisfy the needs of its customers. To be able to serve Detroit suburbs, including Allen Park, Dearborn, Brownstown Township, Dearborn Heights, Ecorse, and Flat Rock, the company has added 3 new, 20-passenger party buses.

Also, the company has hired 4 new party bus drivers who will be driving the new party buses. The company reports that the party bus drivers have years of formal training and decades of experience on the road, which makes them extremely safe.

?Now that our service area is bigger,? said the company?s CEO, ?we cannot just rely on the vehicles we were using when operating inside Detroit boundaries. Also, more party buses will require additional drivers ? this is why we have added 4 new professionals to our team. With our bigger team and bigger fleet, our customers can expect fast response to their transportation needs.?

In addition to the 3 twenty passenger party buses, Detroit Party Bus Company also boasts several other party buses of varying capacities. To learn more about the company?s affordable party bus rentals Detroit, visit the company website: <https://www.limofind.com/mi/detroit-party-bus-rental/>.
