Charlotte, North Carolina ? When Dennis Murray received a message from his dance team that they needed to train on their way to the event, he realized that something had to be done to make practice possible on the road. After a few hours of brainstorming, Dennis came up with the idea of hiring a party bus rental Charlotte.

?I asked around to determine which party bus rental near me Charlotte company would offer us a party bus with all the amenities we would need to train on the road,? said Dennis Murray, ?and a few friends recommended A Step Above Limousine Service. I called the company and a very sweet lady, I think her name was Ann, picked the phone. She was very patient; we went over the details of what we needed and she was very attentive. On the day of the pickup, the party bus arrived 15 minutes before the pickup time and had everything we needed inside.?

Dennis noted that the company provided affordable party bus rentals Charlotte. The vehicles had Aux/iPod connections that allowed the team to play their favorite music and a spacious dance floor that allowed his team to cut the rug as he sat down on the reclining seats and watched. ?They even included a minibar inside for me,? said Dennis Murray. ?The bar allowed me to enjoy some nice drinks as my team concentrated on dancing.?

?Our party bus limousines Charlotte are customizable,? said the company?s CEO after learning about Murray?s comment. ?We can change the party bus amenities to suit the needs of a particular customer. For example, in the case of the dance coach ? Dennis Murray ? we included a modern stereo system inside the cheap party bus rental Charlotte and added connections that allowed them to play their favorite music so that they could perfect their dance moves while on the road.?

A Step Above Limousine Service CEO noted that although the dance coach was transporting a group of 10 dancers, the company customized a 20-passenger teenage party bus Charlotte for him so that he could have enough room for dancing.

?We went to the dance competition and won,? said Dennis Murray. ?And the team leader indicated that being able to train on the road was one of the reasons we won. The party bus driver waited for us and took us to the drop off location. On the way back, the team celebrated with the drinks inside the minibar.?
