Long Island, NY-- Being charged with a crime in New York can have severe repercussions. Few are more aware of this better than New York criminal lawyer Jason Bassett. The impacts of a criminal conviction could be dire and can, in some cases, even change the trajectory of an individual's entire life. Mr. Bassett believes that nobody ought to face the criminal justice system on their own and without the benefit of a competent and experienced criminal defense attorney.

As an experienced criminal lawyer, Mr. Bassett knows that the quality of defense that an individual gets if they are charged with a criminal offense can make a significant difference. Whether the charges get dismissed, reduced, a plea deal is put forward to the defendant, or if they end up in jail or prison and for what the length of time, can frequently depend on the work of their defense lawyer. Whether a person has actually been charged with burglary, assault, murder, domestic violence, or perhaps a DWI or DUI, a criminal charge and conviction can haunt them for years to come. This is why it is vital to have the representation of someone with the knowledge, experience, and determination to fight for the defendant's rights.

"Although criminal penalties and jail time are difficult enough, the way criminal charges and convictions affect the rest of that defendant's life can be equally disastrous," stated Mr. Bassett. "An accused can be penalized and serve their time, and yet for the rest of their life, there is a reminder that they are still thought of a criminal in society's eyes. A criminal charge can impact a person's future employment, academic opportunities, professional licenses and accreditations, and involvement in particular government programs. Each time that individual makes an application for a job, the prospective company will look at them differently. A well-crafted criminal defense is vital to safeguard my customers not just from the criminal punishment itself but likewise these other long-lasting collateral repercussions."

A former district attorney, Mr. Bassett has witnessed the other side of the criminal justice system and the way lots of suspects feel they are without power within the system. He has turned his sights to criminal defense in order to level the playing field and safeguard the rights of those who have been charged with a crime at either the federal or state level. Both clients and other attorneys continue to provide positive reviews and testimonials concerning their work together.

Bergnaum Phil from New York states: "I have nothing but good things to say about Jason. He worked with me and kept me informed during the whole process. I never felt out of the loop or confused, which I understand is an easy thing to feel whenever you are faced with these kinds of problems. He and his team ensured that I get the best possible result for my criminal case. I really suggest getting his service if you ever need an attorney to defend you."

In the legal system, a defendant has crucial rights under the law, and it is the criminal defense attorney's task to support those rights. With over twenty-one years in the criminal justice system, Mr. Bassett has dedicated his practice to protecting the rights of his clients in and out of the courtroom.
